Chef Barbara Evans

Certified Master Sugar Artist, Chef Instructor

“My mission is not only to enrich both the student’s skills and knowledge of sugar art techniques, but to also instill the importance of becoming a lifelong learner in order to continually develop themselves and their skill set.”

Barbara Evans is a Chef Instructor in the L'Art du Gâteau program at The French Pastry School of Kennedy-King College at City Colleges of Chicago. Chef Barbara is a Certified Master Sugar Artist with over thirty-five years of experience mastering her repertoire in the art and science of cake decorating. Chef Evans' mission at The French Pastry School is not only to enrich both the student's skills and knowledge of sugar art techniques, but to also instill the importance of becoming a lifelong learner in order to continually develop themselves and their skill set as professionals.

Over the years Barbara has valued exploring the “science” of the art, constantly testing and trying a new approach, whether it be forming a new recipe or engineering a new product. In addition, her passion for the sugar arts stems from the many talented instructors who have shared their knowledge and incredible talent with her- Seeing their work inspired her to reach higher.

Since 1981, Barbara Evans has owned and operated the Wedding Cake Connection located in Peoria, Illinois, offering custom designed wedding cakes. She earned her title of Certified Master Sugar Artist from the International Cake Exploration Société (ICES) and has served as a Certification Adjudicator and was also a past Show Director & Board Member for ICES. In 2013, she was awarded the ICES Wilbur Brand Service Award. Beyond that, Barbara is the owner and designer of the Stable Mabel Tiered Cake Support System. Her work has been shown in several publications including: Cake Craft & Design, American Cake Decorating, British Sugarcraft, Chicago Brides, ICES and Florist Review. She has also been very successful in the competition world, placing in several shows including: OSSAS, National Gingerbread Competition and TLC's Ultimate Cake off. Evans' passion-driven experience combined with her desire to give back what she has learned make her an exceptional role model and teacher for her students.
